ABOUT ME

I am Seymen Can. I am 20 years old, a 3rd year computer engineering student at Sakarya University of Applied Sciences. I am improving myself in areas such as machine learning, image processing and am interested in data analysis & science. I am well versed in languages such as Python, C++, C#, SQL. I also have experience in web and mobile programming. I like reading books and watching TV series in my spare time. I am preparing for the industry by actively participating in Artificial Intelligence Student Communities. I also take courses from platforms such as UDEMY and Cambridge. I have a good command of English and I can also speak basic Spanish. I am currently looking for internship offers that will allow me to improve myself further, gain value in the industry and help me understand the field better.
